

OOP&DM (Fall 25)

Final Project Documentation - Template

Project Title

- Course: Object-Oriented Programming
- Instructor:
- Student Name:
- Student ID:
- Date:

Table of Contents

1. Introduction
2. Project Requirements
3. System Design
 - 3.1 UML Class Diagram
4. Implementation
 - 4.1 Programming Language and Tools
 - 4.2 Project Structure
5. References
6. Appendix

1. Introduction

- a. Explain what the project does and its main purpose.

2. Project Requirements

- b. List all functional and non-functional requirements.
 - Functional Requirements
 - User can create accounts
 - User can borrow and return items
 - System stores data persistently
 - Admin can view system statistics
 - Non-functional Requirements
 - Easy-to-use interface
 - Follows OOP best practices
 - Uses proper error handling

3. System Design : Submit a final UML

4. Implementation

a. Programming Language and Tools

- Language: C++17
- IDE: Visual Studio / Code::Blocks / CLion

b. Build System: CMake (if applicable)

5. Project Structure

```
/project-name
|— src/           # Source code
|— include/       # Header files
|— tests/         # Test code
|— data/          # Input/output files
|— docs/          # Documentation
|— main.cpp
```

6. References

- List any books, tutorials, or websites used.

7. Appendix

- App/Project screenshots