

Rubric Class Participation

Table 1: Rubric

Criteria	Excellent (5)	Good (4)
Engagement	Actively contributes to discussions, offering insightful ideas, asking thought-provoking questions, and engaging with peers' comments.	Regularly participates in discussions with meaningful contributions and sometimes engages with peers.
Quality of contributions	Well-thought-out, relevant, and demonstrate critical thinking.	Relevant and add value to the discussion.
Preparedness	Always well-prepared with readings, notes, and ideas; brings valuable insights to discussions.	Usually prepared and able to discuss the material; occasional minor lapses in preparation.
Focus & professionalism	Stays on-topic; avoids side conversations. Consistently observes classroom etiquette. Uses electronic devices only for classwork.	Mostly focused; minimal off-task chatter. Uses devices appropriately; minor distractions.
Respect for peers	Always respectful and tactful in expressing disagreement with	Generally respectful, listens to others.