

Question Pool for PAMSA Final Exam (2025)

(with answer key)

- 1- According to Benedict Anderson, nation-states create _____ time-zones.
a) Homogenous
b) Heterogenous
c) Latitude-wise
d) Longitude-wise
- 2- Althusser argues that there are two kinds of state apparatus.
a) Ideological and Non-ideological
b) Coercive and Non-coercive
c) Benevolent and Extractive
d) Ideological and Coercive
- 3- The national anthem of Pakistan was adopted in:
a) 1930
b) 1954
c) 1947
d) 1949
- 4- Hamza Alvi, a prominent Pakistani sociologist asserted that the _____ class played an instrumental role in developing the foundations of Pakistani nationalism.
a) Landowning
b) Military
c) Religious
d) Salariat
- 5- The politics of self-expression grows out of _____ exhaustion, which produces a longing for _____.
a) Financial, Corporate Hedgefunds
b) Physiological, Physical Fitness
c) Spiritual, Purity
d) Mental, Good Entertainment
- 6- Colin Campbell in The Romantic Ethic in the Spirit of Consumerism calls modern consumers as _____ who inwardly create fantasies.
a) Ideologues
b) Hollow men
c) Dreamers
d) Pragmatic
- 7- Which of the following is an essential pre-requisite for ethical life according to Judith Butler?
a) Accounting for oneself
b) Sustainable consumption
c) 100% vegan diet
d) Non-violence

- 8- Nationalism is a form of collective _____, and is closely tied to the idea of _____.
- a) Identity, Foundational myths
 - b) Narcissism, Progress
 - c) Amnesia, Neurosis
 - d) Self-harm, Psychosis
- 9- The basic thesis of Ayesha Jalal's Sole Spokesman: Jinnah, the Muslim League & the Demand for Pakistan (1985) is that Jinnah did not want Pakistan, rather it was for him:
- a) A bargaining chip
 - b) A tool for mass manipulation
 - c) Both a) and b)
 - d) None of the above
- 10- During discussion on Partition, there was a reference to 'partition without end'. What would it mean for the Partition to be complete?
- a) Resolution of all border disputes
 - b) Adoption of multi-culturalism
 - c) Complete annihilation
 - d) None of the above
- 11- Throughout the semester the term 'formal decolonization' was used – as opposed to what kind of decolonization?
- a) Final decolonization
 - b) Substantive decolonization
 - c) Informal decolonization
 - d) Definitive decolonization
- 12- Name at least two of the examples cited of other partitions. (2 points)
- a. Palestine
 - b. Ireland
- 13- Which political ideology was a critical component of anti-colonial struggles?
- a) Libertarianism
 - b) Socialism
 - c) Environmentalism
 - d) Individualism
- 14- The first national anthem from India, 'Vande Mataram' was taken from the novel:
- a) Godan
 - b) Gaban
 - c) Anandmath
 - d) Kayakalp
- 15- Who was the first individual to win a Nobel Prize from India?
- a) Rabindranath Tagore
 - b) Muhammad Iqbal
 - c) Abdus Salam
 - d) Mohandas Karamchand Gandhi

16- What is the general term used by the lecturer for the modern concepts of civilizations, nations, ethnicities? collective singular totalities

17- Complete the following quote:

“Without the claim to popular sovereignty, there can be no nation-state or rashtra. Therefore, all nations are modern.” - Partha Chatterjee

18- The most familiar ways of understanding the Mughal era in Indian history were forged in a framework created by the British as they themselves devised a national history for their own emerging nation. Central to their image of themselves, as well as to their image of what they came to see as a backward but incipient nation, was what the historian David Arnold has called the Orientalist ‘triptych’ of Indian history.” The three elements of this triptych are:

- a. Hindu period
- b. Muslim period
- c. British period

19- Complete the following quote:

“Only in colonial times would [the word] ‘Islam’ abandon its grammatical role as a verbal noun describing a set of Muslim practices to become the proper name of a subject in its own right.” - Faisal Devi, ‘End of Islam’

20- Give two other names Faruqi cites that were earlier used to refer to ‘Urdu’:

- a. Hindavi/Hindi
- b. Rekhta or Dakhni

21- The Delhi Sultanate, unlike the Mughal (T̄imurid) Empire that came to replace it, was specifically ‘Islamic’ in its core military and economic institutions.

- a) True
- b) False

22- The period of the Delhi Sultanate was not characterized by:

- a. expansion of the agricultural frontier
- b. extension of commercial networks
- c. gradual technological change
- d. mass conversions to Islam
- e. development of political and religious institutions

23- According to Metcalf & Metcalf, the unifying ideology of Mughal dynastic rule was:

- a) the Arabic and Turkic language
- b) Islam
- c) tribal affiliation
- d) loyalty to the emperor
- e) None of the above

24- The entire period of Muslim rule in India is characterized by economic stagnation and oppression of minorities only challenged by the rise of the Marathas with Shivaji.

- a) True
- b) False

- 25- One of the main differences between the Mughal empire and European powers was:
- a) having a peasant population
 - b) having access to gunpowder technology
 - c) being an agrarian state, instead of a mercantilist one
 - d) relying on loyal subjects from different backgrounds
- 26- Central to the enduring strength of the East India Company was
- a) its global mercenary recruitment
 - b) its armada of powerful battle ships
 - c) its organization as a joint-stock enterprise
 - d) its brilliant leaders recruited from the best universities like Oxford and Cambridge
- 27- “The cash demand from mercenaries and new infantry units on state resources stimulated novel strategies of governance. These strategies, summed up in historian David Washbrook’s phrase as ___military fiscalism___, created a new relationship between revenue extraction, the military, and financial agents.”
- 28- The attacks on Delhi in 1739, which unleashed large-scale of plunder, butchery and brutality that left some 30,000 dead in Delhi alone were carried out by:
- a) Sikh leader Banda Bahadur
 - b) Ruler of Mysore, Tipu Sultan
 - c) Nizam al Mulk of Hyderabad
 - d) Persian ruler, Nadir Shah
- 29- What was a key challenge for the East India Company’s agents when Warren Hastings took office?
- a) Lack of military resources
 - b) Excessive government funding
 - c) Overabundance of trained personnel
 - d) Ignorance of Indian languages and culture
- 30- According to Hastings, how should British regulations in India be structured?
- a) Based on British parliamentary laws
 - b) Ignored in favor of local rulers
 - c) Adapted to Indian manners and customs
 - d) Modeled on French colonial systems
- 31- The College of Fort William was founded in
- a) 1600
 - b) 1857
 - c) 1835
 - d) 1802
- 32- Known as the ‘steel frame’ of British rule, the role of the ___civil service___ was central to colonial governance, combining tax collection, policing, and judicial duties.
- 33- When did the East India Company lose its trade monopoly in India?
- a) 1793
 - b) 1813
 - c) 1833
 - d) 1857

- 34- In terms of the aims of government, what was the difference highlighted in the lectures between earlier imperial governments and EIC rule that can be defined in one word: profit.
- 35- Which crucial year is missing from the chronology of the textbook by Metcalf & Metcalf manifesting one of the first impacts of British colonial policies? What happened then?
Year: 1770 Event: first famine of Bengal.
- 36- As the 19th century progressed, the Indian economy came to be characterized by the 'classic' colonial economic structure, meaning:
a) Exporting manufactures and importing raw materials
b) Elimination of agricultural production
c) Complete integration into the world market as any other nation
d) Importing manufactures and exporting raw materials
- 37- According to 'Thomas Macaulay in his 'Minute on Education', what was the value of Indian and Arabic literature compared to European literature?
a) Equal in value
b) Superior in spiritual content
c) Worth less than a single shelf of a European library
d) Essential for British governance
- 38- The main strategy of Governor-General Dalhousie for annexing territories of states in India that were already aligned with the EIC, such as Satara and Jhansi, is called the doctrine of lapse.
- 39- What was a significant consequence of the railway construction in India?
a) It led to widespread Indian industrialization
b) It served British economic interests by linking hinterlands to port cities
c) It was entirely funded by Indian capital
d) It served the transportation needs of Indians
- 40- The Revolt of 1857–8 was referred to as the Indian Mutiny by British rulers.
- 41- Among the causes Syed Ahmad Khan identified for the rebellion of 1857, one cannot find any mention of:
a. the impact of British cultural policies
b. severe revenue extraction
c. decay of local elites
d. the lack of national states for both Hindus and Muslims
- 42- A defining feature of post-colonial times – which perpetuates the legacy of modern colonialism in an ongoing binary segmentation of the world – can be identified as:
a) the Cold War bipolarity
b) conflict between moderates and radicals
c) the liberal-conservative political division
d) the global color line
- 43- The first partition under the British Raj, based on a Muslim-Hindu majority, was implemented from 1905-1911 in the province of Bengal.

- 44- The Montagu–Chelmsford reforms of 1919 granted full self-rule and autonomy for Indians in the Raj, like the dominions of Australia and Canada.
- a) True
 - b) False
- 45- A commonly held idea among Indian nationalists, particularly Nehru, was that a post-colonial independent state should have a __strong state__ in order to modernize.
- 46- Transfer of power from the British Raj to Independent India/Pakistan was initially set to happen in:
- a) February 1947, but was concluded by August 1947.
 - b) June 1947, but was later postponed to August 1947.
 - c) June 1948, but was later brought forward to August 1947.
 - d) March 1949
- 47- The borders with Pakistan and India were defined:
- a) During the Simla conference in 1945 by the India National Congress and the Muslim League
 - b) In the drafting of the Pakistan Declaration of 1940
 - c) During the negotiations of 1942 known as the Cripps mission
 - d) A couple of days after the declaration of independence on August 15, 1947
- 48- According to Jalal and Bose, Pakistan was for Jinnah the means with which to win an equitable share of power for Muslims at the all-India center.
- a) True
 - b) False
- 49- On the eve of Partition, the number of Muslims in South Asia was estimated to be:
- a) About 50-70 million in India and from 90 to 100 million in East and West Pakistan.
 - b) 100 million in India and 110 million in East and West Pakistan.
 - c) Less than 20 million in India and almost 80 million in East and West Pakistan.
 - d) Around 40 million in India and as many as 65 million in East and West Pakistan.
- 50- Which of the following was NOT listed as a shared feature of Daechsel's politics of self-expression?
- a) valorization of war and violence
 - b) celebration of extreme experiences and political spectacles
 - c) obsession with paramilitary activity
 - d) strong advocacy for parliamentary democracy and non-violence
- 51- Despite its appeal to a collective identity, self-expressionism remains centrally concerned with __individual__ salvation, which is why it is dismissive toward a politics predicated on society.
- 52- In Punjab during the 1930s to the 1950s, Daechsel identifies the main social constituency of the politics of self-expression as being the
- a) industrial proletariat
 - b) Urdu middle-class

- c) traditional aristocracy
- d) rural peasantry

53- Qasmi identifies in the 'moon controversy' of 1961 a contradiction between the modernizing project of Pakistan as a nation-state of Muslims in South Asia, and the religious traditions which underpin this Islamic identity.

- a) True
- b) False

54- In premodern times, traditional Eid celebrations were:

- a) A national event
- b) A global Muslim event
- c) A local event restricted to a community or city
- d) Organized by the caliph

55- The slogan "one nation, one Eid" reflects the Pakistani state's desire to project Pakistan as a single religious unit with a unified lunar calendar.

56- How should we best conceptualize the term "Islam" moving forward?

- a. As a single, monolithic entity
- b. As a proper noun referring to a fixed subject
- c. As a dynamic process (a verbal noun) rather than a static thing
- d. As a complete historical totality

57- In the modern history of South Asia, there is much projection of characteristics of colonial society onto pre-colonial society.

- a. True
- b. False

58- Salтанат-e-Taimuriya, or the Timurid Empire was an ethnic empire.

- a. True
- b. False

59- In his recent book Empire Incorporated: The corporations that built British Colonialism, the historian Philip J. Stern called Britain's East India Company's venture colonialism. (Hint: a type of private equity where funds are provided to start-up companies.)

60- The 1857 uprising _____ British racism.

- a. Lowered
- b. Intensified
- c. Institutionalized
- d. Localized

61- Western societies are postcolonial. [Because they themselves were transformed by colonization.]

- a. True
- b. False

62- The campaign against the 1905 partition of Bengal was known as Swadeshi which encouraged the use of local products and a boycott of British imports.

- 63- Which of the following best describes the legacy of the Partition massacres and migrations regarding state loyalty?
- a. The fear generated caused widespread collapse of loyalty to the central state
 - b. The events led to the complete breakdown of the civil service and military structures
 - c. The fear led to a widespread perception that safety could only be found among members of one's own community, helping to consolidate loyalties toward the successor states (India or Pakistan)
 - d. The violence led to the immediate creation of a secular society repudiating corporate group identities
- 64- Who described the Pakistan born out of Partition as a "maimed, mutilated, and moth-eaten Pakistan"?
- a. Jawaharlal Nehru
 - b. Lord Mountbatten
 - c. Mohammad Ali Jinnah
 - d. Mahatma Gandhi
- 65- What was the role of Cyril Radcliffe in the Partition of India?
- a. He was the last governor of India.
 - b. He was responsible for drawing the boundary lines between India and Pakistan.
 - c. He led the Indian National Congress.
 - d. He was responsible for the Durand line
- 66- Citing the historian Linda Colley's book, Britons: Forging the Nation, roughly over what time period did the lecture suggest that British nationalism emerged? __18th & 19th centuries__
- 68- Over the course of the semester, it was repeatedly emphasized that the emergence of modern European nationalism was thoroughly bound up with __imperialism__.
- 69- The employees of the EIC who returned to England with wealth accumulated in India were called __Nabobs__.
- 70- According to Crispin Bates, the so-called Pax Britannica in India was largely a myth because:
- a. India was economically prosperous under British rule
 - b. The British ruled through consensus
 - c. There were no foreign threats to the empire
 - d. Uprisings and rebellions were constant
- 71- The Thuggee and Dacoity Department later evolved into which institution?
- a. The Indian Army
 - b. The Indian Civil Service and bureaucracy
 - c. The Criminal Investigation Department
 - d. The Intelligence Bureau

72- The East India Company viewed land revenue as:

- a. Religious tribute
- b. Tax on labor
- c. War indemnity
- d. Rent

73- Which two regions remained largely loyal during the uprising?

- a. Awadh and Gujarat
- b. Bengal and Punjab
- c. Bihar and Sindh
- d. Rajasthan and Kashmir

74- The uprising's main limitation, according to Bates, was that it lacked:

- a. Leaders were not popular among the masses
- b. Weapons
- c. A unified nationalist ideology
- d. Peasant support

75- Name at least three major Sufi orders in South Asia – including the largest one:

- i. Chishti
- ii. Qadiri
- iii. Suhrawardi or Naqshbandi

76- Name two major bhakti poets:

- a. Kabir
- b. Mirabai

77- Who is the author of the verses below? Answer: Kabir

Hamare Ram Rahim Karim Keso

(My Ram, Rahim, Karim and Keshav)

Allaha Ram Sath Soyi, Sath Soyi, Sath Soyi, Sath Soyi

(Allah, Ram, All are the Truth, All are the Truth)

78- Name only one title of the genre of premakhyān, together with its author:

Madhumalati by Manjhan, or Padmavat by Jayasi

79- The vernacular revolution replaced the 'classical' languages, Persian and Sanskrit.

- a. True
- b. False

80- Richard Eaton points out that the process of vernacularization was coterminous in South Asia and Europe. Who are the two contemporaneous poets referenced to demonstrate the point?

- a. Amir Khusro
- b. Dante

- 81- The Turks from Central Asia who founded the 'Muslim' states of the Delhi sultanate and Timurid empires were historically the first invaders of their kind.
a. True
b. False
- 82- Name two major regional states that succeeded the Timurid state in the 18th c.
a. Awadh or Bengal
b. Hyderabad (Deccan) or Punjab
- 83- Muhammad Husain Āzād's (1830-1910) history of Urdu poetry, Āb-e hayāt, is criticized for:
a) Being too long and detailed.
b) Ignoring major Hindu poets of the 18th century.
c) Promoting the use of the Nagari script.
d) Focusing only on secular poetry.
- 84- As late as 1858, the poet Ghalib was uncomfortable using "Urdu" as a language name.
- 85- The growth of India's Muslim population was LEAST likely due to:
a) Systematic programs of forced mass conversion.
b) Intermarriage.
c) The spiritual appeal of Sufi teachers.
d) Individuals or groups seeking upward social mobility.
- 86- The kingdom of Vijayanagar, though Hindu, demonstrated its participation in a wider political culture by:
a) Forcing all Muslims to convert to Hinduism.
b) Abandoning all Indian traditions for Persian ones.
c) Using the title "Sultan among Hindu kings" and adopting northern architectural forms.
d) Refusing to engage in trade with Muslim states.
- 87- Bhakti and Sufi traditions are similar because they both emphasized:
a) Strict adherence to religious law as the only path to salvation.
b) The individual's direct devotion and personal connection to the divine.
c) The need to overthrow political rulers.
d) The superiority of Sanskrit and Arabic sacred texts.
- 88- Abu'l Fazl, Akbar's courtier, presented the emperor as:
a) A strict enforcer of Islamic law.
b) A divine light emanating from God and the receptacle of all virtues.
c) A primarily military leader with no spiritual interests.
d) A mere figurehead for the real power of the 'ulama.
- 89- The Mughal administrative system awarded nobles ranks (mansab) and the right to collect revenue from assigned lands (jagirs). A key feature of this system was:
a) Allowing nobles to inherit their jagirs permanently, creating stable local power bases.

- b) Frequently rotating jagir assignments to prevent nobles from becoming too powerful locally.
 - c) Granting jagirs only to Muslim nobles.
 - d) Allowing peasants to own and sell their land freely.
- 90- Modern historians often challenge the characterization of Aurangzeb as solely responsible for Mughal decline because:
- a) He was actually a very weak and ineffective ruler.
 - b) He reversed all of Akbar's policies and immediately caused the empire to collapse.
 - c) Long-term economic and political transitions, incipient in the 17th century, were more significant factors.
 - d) The empire was already gone by the time he took the throne.
- 91- Aurangzeb's actions against certain temples and the Sikh Guru Tegh Bahadur are best understood by modern historians as primarily motivated by:
- a) A fanatical and singular hatred for non-Islamic religions.
 - b) A desire to completely eradicate Hinduism and Sikhism from India.
 - c) Considerations of imperial politics and perceived disloyalty, mixed with religious justification.
 - d) The advice of his Hindu generals.
- 92- The rise of groups like the Marathas, Sikhs, and Jats in the 18th century is because of:
- a) The reawakening of ancient, suppressed Hindu nations.
 - b) A product of the Mughal context itself, which provided them with wealth, as well as military and governing experience.
 - c) A direct result of European intervention and support.
 - d) A rejection of all forms of centralized state power.
- 93- Shivaji, the Maratha leader, sought legitimacy by:
- a) Appealing to the Pope in Rome for recognition.
 - b) Rejecting all Brahmanic rituals and creating a completely new social order.
 - c) Having Brahmins create a genealogy that identified him as a Kshatriya king.
 - d) Converting to Islam to gain Mughal favor.
- 94- The authors prefer to describe the Mughal period as "Early Modern" rather than "Medieval" because it:
- a) Was a period of stagnation and isolation.
 - b) Was part of global processes of change, including new sea routes, monetization, and centralized states.
 - c) Only involved developments within India and had no global connections.
 - d) Came immediately before the modern period, regardless of its characteristics.
- 95- Give two of the names that the local Indian population used for the new rulers and their communities in the time of the Delhi sultanate:

- a. Turk
- b. yavana

- 96- Dara Shukoh, Aurangzeb's brother, wrote a celebrated treatise linking Sufi and Upanishadic thought called Majma ul-bahrain, or The Mingling of the Two Oceans .
- 97- The Mughal system of ranking nobles was called the mansabdari system.
- 98- The modern dogma of Progress is a new form of narcissism, that is historical narcissism .
- 99- In the colonial context, the other side of the coin of Progress is the modern doctrine of the civilizing mission.
- 100- Progress and the Nation are both soteriological discourses, i.e. they have to do with salvation .
- 101- The idea of 'Manifest Destiny' comes from the nationalist discourse of which country?
 United States
- 102- Who said the following from the floor of the National Assembly in 1966? Zufikar Ali Bhutto (name of politician)
- “Pakistan is not just a man-made country. It is a God-made country... Pakistan is the creation of the surge of Islamic nationhood. Pakistan is the product of an earth-shaking idea. It is a revolution cut out of the heart of history... Pakistan is a live revolution.”
- 103- The famous Lahore Resolution of 1940 was adopted by the All India Muslim League on March 24th .
- 104- History entails both continuity and discontinuity .
- 105- Gandhi's moral and social thought was deeply influenced by:
- a) Industrial capitalism
 - b) Jainism and the Gujarati mercantile ethos
 - c) British militarism
 - d) Persian Sufism

- 106- In Hind Swaraj (1909), Gandhi argued that machinery represented:
- a) Human progress
 - b) British ingenuity
 - c) The chief symbol of modern civilization and a great sin
 - d) The future of Indian nationalism
- 107- Gandhi's ideal society was based on:
- a) Centralized planning
 - b) Village self-sufficiency (Rāmarājya)
 - c) Industrial development
 - d) Parliamentary democracy
- 108- Gandhi coined the term satyagraha to mean:
- a) Armed struggle
 - b) Civil obedience
 - c) Truth-force
 - d) Economic boycott
- 109- Gandhi's promotion of khadi (hand-spun cloth) symbolized:
- a) Support for British trade
 - b) Indian unity and self-reliance
 - c) Elite fashion
 - d) Western modernity
- 110- Fill in the blanks: "Rule Britannia, Britannia rule the ___waves___/Britons never, never shall be ___slaves___."
- 111- Name some of the distinctive features highlighted in the course characterizing the EIC state in India:
- a) ___garrison/military state___
 - b) ___corporate/capitalist state___
 - c) ___apartheid/racial state___
 - d) ___ethnographic state___
- 112- The Azamgarh Proclamation called for:
- a) Exclusive support for Muslim leaders
 - b) The establishment of trade monopolies
 - c) A joint Hindu-Muslim struggle against British oppression
 - d) The revival of the East India Company's rule
- 113- What was a key challenge for the East India Company's agents when Warren Hastings took office?
- a) Lack of military resources

- b) Excessive government funding
- c) Overabundance of trained personnel
- d) Ignorance of Indian languages and culture

114- According to Bates, the uprising of 1857 was not a national war of independence because:

- a) It was limited geographically and lacked a unified strategy
- b) It was entirely led by Europeans
- c) It was supported by all Indian elites
- d) It was a short and peaceful protest

115- The poet Mushafi (c. 1750-1824) declared around 1785, that the mode of the day was:

- (a) Persian verse
- (b) Arabic prose
- (c) Hindvi verse
- (d) Sanskrit epic

116- Initially, the term zabān-e urdu-e mu'alla signified:

- a) The language of the military camp
- b) The language of the common people
- c) The Persian language
- d) A mixed dialect of South India

117- The word for ethnicity in Urdu is none.

118- Gujarat's famous Somnath temple was fortified by locals to protect it from Mahmud of Ghazni.

- (a) True

(b) False

119- India's Muslim populations are primarily found in the core areas of Muslim rule.

- (a) True

(b) False

120- Ram Mohan Roy established the _____ in 1828.

- (a) Arya Samaj
- (b) Sanatan Dharma

(c) Brahmo Samaj

(d) Hindu Mahasabha

121- The practice banned by Lord Bentinck was:

(a) Sati

(b) Dowry

(c) Caste discrimination

(d) Untouchability

122- The term mononomological refers to _____ one name for one language _____ .

123- According to Richard Eaton, what was one advantage of temple construction by kings?

a) Political legitimacy and public display of power

b) Economic loss to the state

c) Religious intolerance

d) Reduced political stability

124- The British classified tribes like the Banjaras as “criminal tribes” because:

a) They did not settle permanently and defied colonial order

b) They engaged in agriculture

c) They evaded taxes

d) They joined the Mughal army

125- The commanding British officer who ordered open fire upon the Jallianwala bagh protestors was __ Colonel Reginald Dyer __.

Essay-type Questions

1. What distinguishes the nation-state from premodern forms of political organization?
2. Explain in your own words what are the main elements constituting the ‘politics of self-expression’ and its causes and effects.
3. What does Qasmi’s analysis of the moon controversy tell us about the difference between pre-modern and modern views of religion, as well as nationalist politics regarding the regulation of society.

4. Discuss the difference in the approaches of the leadership of Congress and the Muslim League in terms of a vision, priorities, and other ideas for Indian nationalism and ultimately for the independent states. For example, you can compare Nehru and Gandhi with Jinnah and others.
5. Given what you now understand about the history of South Asia from the premodern to the modern periods, reflect on the elements of continuity and discontinuity, respectively, in the historical process with concrete examples from what you have learnt.
6. How did the apartheid character of modern colonial rule manifest itself, and what are some of its lasting effects?